SUBJECT:

Suggestion for Regulating Coverage of
Priority Targets in Cuba

1. With the understanding that a better means for regulating Cuban oversight is still needed, [REDACTED] brought the box score on coverage of Cuban highest priority targets up-to-date as of 28 January. Using that date as an example and as a starting point, a formula could be worked out which might give better control of the coverage of highest priority targets. As of the close of business on the 28th, for instance, we noted that only nine targets had not been covered within the past four days. We could, therefore, have recommended the following procedures as of the 29th:
